Parking and Transportation office relocates to 609 Albany St.

In an effort to improve operations throughout the medical center community, the BU Medical Center Office of Parking and Transportation Services (OPTS) is relocating from the Collamore Building to 609 Albany St. (J Building), across from the A-Lot parking area.

OPTS is responsible for all BU Medical Center parking facilities. The office also provides information on public transportation and the services provided by the Interinstitutional Transportation Management Association at BU Medical Center.

The OPTS telephone number (638-4915) and operational hours (7 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday and Wednesday; 7 a.m. to 3 p.m., Tuesday, Thursday, Friday) will remain the same.

For more information, please call Kevin Tuohey, director, Facilities Management, at 638-6888, or Connie Packard, manager of general services, at 638-4935. ♦

Annual tuberculosis test required

In preparation for the spring Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) survey, BU Medical Center is making it easy for staff and physicians to receive their annual tuberculosis test, as required by federal law. The Occupational Health staff is offering tuberculosis skin tests on Tuesday, Jan. 6, 1998, from 1 to 5 p.m. in the lobby of the Inpatient Building on the Harrison Avenue Campus.

Staff will be available to evaluate the tests on Thursday, Jan. 8, 1998, between 1 and 5 p.m., in the same location. Those unable to attend the scheduled session can call 638-8400 for an appointment. ♦

SPH invites all to Talbot Building open house on Friday, Dec. 19

The BU Medical Campus and surrounding community is invited to attend an SPH open house, Friday, Dec. 19, showcasing the recently renovated Talbot Building. All are welcome to tour the oldest building on the campus between 1 and 4 p.m.

The building officially reopened amidst much fanfare at a ribbon-cutting ceremony held in October. The 18-month renovation process entailed carefully restoring the structure's original Victorian elegance and completely remodeling the interior to house the seven departments of SPH. ♦

Gift collection under way for patients

The Volunteer Services Department is collecting gifts to distribute to BMC patients during the holidays.

Donations may be brought to Volunteer Services, ground floor, Administration Building, before Saturday, Dec. 20. Gifts for both adults and children are welcome, and all gifts should be unwrapped and new. For more information, call 534-5122.
